What if I don't have a lot of time for new Friends?

Your involvement with the Friends can be as relaxed or busy as you like. All it takes to become a Friend is the annual dues. Any donation you wish to make beyond that is much appreciated.

If you do have time and talents to share, we welcome your participation and input. Let us hear your ideas!

To join the Friends, simply visit our website or fill out the form in this brochure and return it along with your annual dues (it only takes a moment on our website, and you can pay easily with PayPal).

What do the Friends Do?

The Friends help fund children's programs, teen events, adult workshops and special performances at the library.

Our support of family reading programs has repeatedly earned the New Jersey State Library's Early Literacy Best Practices Award.

Friends donations may...

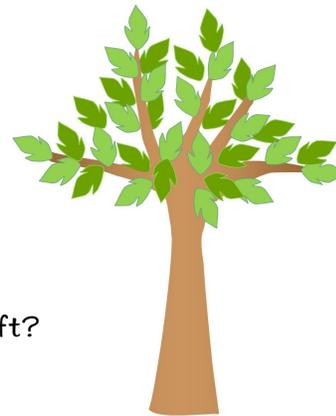

- provide essential support for children's reading programs, including funding of outstanding professional performers such as musicians, magicians, puppeteers and jugglers.
- fund acquisition of equipment and furnishings to enhance library services and expand patrons' use of the library.
- purchase supplies for children's story-times, craft programs, teen events and book clubs.

How do the Friends raise money?

The Friends raise support through annual membership dues and through sales at our store, Second Story Books, located inside the library. We encourage you to browse and shop for books, movies and music at reasonable prices. While most of our materials are used, some are in like-new condition and may be suitable for gifting. You can even buy gift cards in $5 denominations to share as gifts.

Gift Memberships and Honorariums

If you know of someone who also appreciates libraries, why not give them a Friends membership as a gift? It's a great way to celebrate a shared interest or a special occasion. A letter will be sent directly to them.

You can also honor an individual's memory with a memorial gift to the Friends. At your request, we will send a letter to the family in memoriam.

The Friends of the Watchung Library is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization, and can accept all tax-deductible donations. Please remember us if your employer offers to match your contributions, as many corporations do. The Friends can also receive bequests from estate plans; please contact us for further information should you wish to designate a legacy gift.
